Term one

BI 130 Acts & the Basis of Missions: Thursdays Aug 8-Oct 3 Instructor: David & Elizabeth Kilmer

This course includes a study of the journeys of Paul and the development of the early churches. Special emphasis is placed on the principles applicable to church life today. The ministry of the Holy Spirit is emphasized. This course covers international missions including a intro to Foursquare Missions.

✦ BI 110 Old Testament Survey I: Sundays Aug 4 -October 6 Instructor: Gary Loop

This course includes a survey of the dynamics of creation and Hebrew national history, from Genesis to Esther. Notable Biblical characters are highlighted, and special emphasis is given to the typology of Jesus Christ.

Term two

TH 120 Theology II : Thursdays Oct 10 -Dec 12 Instructor: Dave Kilmer

✦ Pneumatology—A study of the Scriptural revelation of the person and work of the Holy Spirit from the Pentecostal perspective, including a study of the baptism and gifts and graces of the Spirit as aspects of His continuing ministry in the Church today.

✦ Divine healing—A study of God's provision and promises concerning physical healing.

✦ Angelology—An examination of the Scriptural teaching concerning the origin, nature, sphere, work, and destiny of angels.

✦ Ecclesiology—The doctrine detailing origin, nature, and constitution of the Church; its local organization, ministry, ordinances, and destiny.

MI 120 Creative Biblical Communication: Sundays Oct. 13—Dec 15 Instructor: Matt Messner

This introductory course is designed to give the student a philosophy of preaching and a practical understanding of sermon types, preparation and delivery.
